Suggested timeline for program (ie. spring 2025, fall 2029, etc.):

Do you have direct communication with this speaker(s) or their representation?

Can you provide contact information or a letter of introduction upon request?

If known, please provide the speaker's typical fee?

Please provide us with a brief introduction to the work of the speaker(s) – essentially a highlights “bio blurb” written for a general readership. (300 words max.)

Please provide a “quick pitch” paragraph explaining which department(s) will benefit from having the speaker on campus and how, keeping in mind the Clarke Forum's mission. (300 words max.)

Does this speaker engage with the Clarke Forum's annual theme (2025/26: “Thought Experiments”), or might be willing to do so? If so, please elaborate? (200 words max.)

To ensure a robust attendance at Clarke Forum events, proposals should be accompanied by sponsorship commitments.

Please list the names of departments that have pledged to co-sponsor this event with financial commitments and list the amount of department pledges. (*minimum pledge is $100):

Indicate the names of departments that have pledged to co-sponsor this event with class attendance commitments by listing those classes and instructors below.

Please share your thoughts on how this visit could potentially involve other departments, programs, student groups, or the Carlisle community in a broader inter-/multi-/transdisciplinary context, as applicable. We may use this list to seek out additional sponsorship commitments or programming opportunities. (300 words max.)

Essential Links: Please share no more than five links that might give us a better sense of this speaker and their area of expertise.

The information provided on this form will help us assess and prioritize proposed events with respect to the Clarke Forum's commitment to inclusive and diverse programming.

Ideal submission deadlines: April 1 for fall events & October 1 for spring events. Please submit this form directly to:
